RESULTS OF THE MANDATORY CASH OFFER TO SHAREHOLDERS OF KUMBA RESOURCES LIMITED ("KUMBA")

1. RESULTS OF THE OFFER

Anglo American announces that at 12:00 noon on Friday, 5 December 2003, the closing time and date of the offer, acceptances in terms of the offer had been received from Kumba shareholders holding in aggregate 95 235 911 Kumba shares, resulting in Anglo American, together with its wholly-owned subsidiary Anglo South Africa Capital (Proprietary) Limited ("ASAC"), increasing its total shareholding in Kumba to 201 092 500 shares, equivalent to 66.62% of the issued share capital of Kumba.

2. INTENTIONS REGARDING KUMBA AND PROSPECTS

Anglo American, as Kumba's anchor shareholder, is now in a position to work together with Kumba to utilise the opportunity presented by strong growth in global demand for iron ore to facilitate a multi-billion Rand expansion of Kumba's iron ore assets and supporting infrastructure, with a view to creating a world class iron ore operation with economic scale to compete internationally. Anglo American will work together with all stakeholders to help unlock the significant efficiencies between the Northern Cape iron ore mines, Orex (owner of the Sishen Saldanha railway line) and the Saldanha iron ore port.

3. LEVEL OF ACCEPTANCES

Anglo American will be engaging the South African Government and other stakeholders including black economic empowerment interests in discussions regarding the level of Anglo American's shareholding in Kumba. A further announcement will be made in due course.

4. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Anglo American will seek the appointment of additional directors to the board of Kumba.

News Release

10 December 2003

Anglo American plc names new non-executive director

Anglo American plc ("Anglo American") announces that Dr Maria Silvia Bastos Marques has joined its Board with immediate effect.

Ms Marques (46) has been a partner of a corporate finance consultancy (MS & CR2 Finanças Corporativas Ltda.) since 2002. Prior to that she was both President of the Brazilian Steel Institute, from 2001 to 2002, and Chief Executive of Companhia Siderurgica Nacional (CSN), Latin America's largest integrated steel company, from 1999 to 2002 (Head of Corporate Centre from 1996 to 1999). During her tenure at CSN, the former state owned business was transformed into a profitable and growing company. She has held non-executive directorships in Petroleo Brasileiro SA (Petrobrás), Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD) and Companhia Souza Cruz SA. She also chaired Galvasud, a joint venture between CSN and Thyssen-Krupp Stahl. From 1993 to 1996, she was the Secretary of Finance for the municipality of Rio de Janeiro where over that period she succeeded in balancing the city's budget and increasing reserves from US$5 million to US$1.2 billion.

Ms Marques, a Brazilian national, holds a BA in Public Administration from the Brazilian School of Public Administration, a Masters degree and a PhD in Economics from the Graduate School of Economics, Getulio Vargas Foundation in Rio de Janeiro.

Commenting on the appointment, Sir Mark Moody-Stuart, Chairman of Anglo American, said: "We are delighted to welcome Maria Silvia to the Board and are confident that she will bring fresh insight to the Board with her commercial skills, experience in related businesses and extensive knowledge of Latin America."

Anglo American announces €94m merger of Bauernfeind's Corrugated Paper and Packaging business

Anglo American plc ("Anglo American") announces it has entered into an agreement for the merger of Bauernfeind's Corrugated Paper and Packaging business ("Bauernfeind") with Anglo American's corrugated packaging business, Mondi Packaging. The Bauernfeind Trust will receive approximately 5.3 million Anglo American shares in exchange for Bauernfeind, valuing its equity contribution at €94 million. Net debt in Bauernfeind on closing is estimated to be at around €250 million, giving an implied enterprise value of €344 million. Anglo American will own 100% of the enlarged Mondi Packaging. This transaction is subject to the relevant regulatory approvals.

Bauernfeind comprises a combination of corrugated paper and converting assets in Germany, Belgium, Austria, Poland, Italy, Switzerland and China. A total of five paper mills produce around 580,000 tonnes per annum of mainly waste based corrugated case materials ("CCM") on seven paper machines. The converting business consists of 10 plants with a corrugating capacity of 1,200 mm² currently producing around 700 mm² per annum.

Mondi Packaging is an integrated producer of corrugated paper, corrugated board and corrugated boxes and currently produces around 735,000 tonnes per annum of corrugated paper and 1,400 mm² of converted corrugated packaging. The transaction will result in the combined group becoming the 4th largest European corrugated producer.

David Hathorn, CEO of the Mondi group, said, "This transaction builds on our existing position in corrugated packaging and is a complementary fit with Mondi Packaging's existing business, providing a broader coverage of key European markets. The transaction is in line with Mondi Packaging's stated strategy of acquisition led growth in order to establish critical mass in corrugated packaging."

Background Note for Editors

Mondi Europe forms part of Anglo Paper and Packaging, a division of Anglo American plc. Anglo Paper and Packaging contributed 21% to Anglo American's headline earnings for the six-month period to 30 June 2003, making it the second largest contributor to the Anglo group. Headline earnings rose by 16% from $153 million to $178 million. Anglo Paper and Packaging's operating profit was $357 million, 23% higher than for the first six months of 2002, with Mondi South Africa contributing $97 million and Mondi Europe $260 million.

MONDI INITIATES FIRST MAJOR BEE TRANSACTION IN SOUTH AFRICAN PAPER AND PACKAGING SECTOR

Anglo American plc's wholly owned South African subsidiary, Mondi South Africa ("Mondi"), and MCI Resources ("MCI"), which is led by Cyril Ramaphosa and James Motlatsi, today announced that they have agreed in principle to the creation of a new black empowerment partnership in Mondi's newsprint business ("MNB") based in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa. The transaction, which is likely to be completed in the first quarter of next year, values MNB at R1,1 billion.

MNB is a significant southern hemisphere producer of newsprint, manufacturing some 220,000 metric tons per year of this paper grade at Mondi's Merebank mill close to Durban and employs 322 people. It has achieved a well-established domestic newsprint market share of some 60%. MNB will include the relevant waste paper preparation, mechanical pulp and newsprint production equipment at the Merebank mill, as well as significant plantations in KwaZulu-Natal which supply timber to the mill as raw material.

In terms of the agreement, MCI will acquire a 42% interest in MNB and a further 8% in MNB will be set aside for further broad-based empowerment. It is the intention that structures be established to facilitate ownership of this 8% by Mondi South Africa employees and relevant neighbouring communities. The transaction will be funded through a combination of equity to be provided by Mondi and MCI, bank financing in the form of senior debt, and mezzanine debt to be provided by Mondi. Implementation of the transaction is subject to the finalisation of various agreements and the necessary board and regulatory approvals. MCI is committed to be a long term investor in MNB, taking an active role in the management of the business alongside Mondi as its partner.

Andrew Thompson, Chairman and CEO of Mondi South Africa, commented: "I am delighted to have a partner of the stature of MCI in our newsprint business, with its important BEE shareholders Cyril Ramaphosa and James Motlatsi. MCI has skills which will enable it to co-ordinate and oversee the development of MNB's socio-economic upliftment and empowerment initiatives and to strengthen MNB's strategic and business development initiatives. I look forward to a long and fruitful partnership with them. "

Cyril Ramaphosa, Chairman of MCI said: "We are delighted to be joining forces with Anglo American and Mondi in our first investment in the paper and packaging industry. We look forward to becoming involved in the management of MNB together with Andrew Thompson and his high calibre team and to growing the business together."

News Release

11 December 2003

MONDI INITIATES FIRST MAJOR BEE TRANSACTION IN SOUTH AFRICAN PAPER AND PACKAGING SECTOR

Anglo American plc's wholly owned South African subsidiary, Mondi South Africa ("Mondi"), and MCI Resources ("MCI"), which is led by Cyril Ramaphosa and James Mottlatsi, today announced that they have agreed in principle to the creation of a new black empowerment partnership in Mondi's newsprint business ("MNB") based in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa. The transaction, which is likely to be completed in the first quarter of next year, values MNB at R1,1 billion.

MNB is a significant southern hemisphere producer of newsprint, manufacturing some 220,000 metric tons per year of this paper grade at Mondi's Merebank mill close to Durban and employs 322 people. It has achieved a well-established domestic newsprint market share of some 60%. MNB will include the relevant waste paper preparation, mechanical pulp and newsprint production equipment at the Merebank mill, as well as significant plantations in KwaZulu-Natal which supply timber to the mill as raw material.

In terms of the agreement, MCI will acquire a 42% interest in MNB and a further 8% in MNB will be set aside for further broad-based empowerment. It is the intention that structures be established to facilitate ownership of this 8% by Mondi South Africa employees and relevant neighbouring communities. The transaction will be funded through a combination of equity to be provided by Mondi and MCI, bank financing in the form of senior debt, and mezzanine debt to be provided by Mondi. Implementation of the transaction is subject to the finalisation of various agreements and the necessary board and regulatory approvals. MCI is committed to be a long term investor in MNB, taking an active role in the management of the business alongside Mondi as its partner.

17 December 2003

Anglo American acquires Mexican sack producer from Copamex Group

Anglo American plc ("Anglo American") announces that Frantschach, its 70% owned Austrian subsidiary, has signed an agreement for the acquisition of the sack business of Mexican paper and packaging group Copamex, for a total cash consideration of $52 million.

Frantschach, part of Anglo American's paper and packaging division which operates under the Mondi name, is the largest supplier of industrial sacks and kraft paper worldwide and a leading supplier in flexible packaging and coating with sales of about €1.9 billion.

The sack division of Copamex is the largest industrial sack producer in Mexico and the seventh largest sack producer worldwide. In 2002, the business produced 470 million paper sacks and generated sales of $94 million. The business, with its headquarters in Monterrey, consists of 4 production sites in Monterrey, Chihuahua, Puebla and Guadalajara.

With this acquisition, Frantschach will become one of the leading North American industrial sack suppliers. Frantschach intends to combine this business with its sack plant near Chicago, in the USA, and focus on expanding its position in the North American market.

In support of the transaction, the parties have concluded a long-term supply agreement for the supply of sack paper from Copamex to the Mexican sack plants of Frantschach.

The transaction is subject to relevant regulatory approvals. Closing is expected in February 2004.

Anglo American plc (the "Company")

Deferred Bonus Plan Disclosures

"Notification of Directors' interests pursuant to section 324(2) of the Companies Act 1985.

Under the terms of the Company's Deferred Bonus Plan, certain employees and the executive directors ("Participants") receive a bonus in the form of the Company's ordinary shares of US$0.50 each ("ordinary shares") together with an award of an equal number of free ordinary shares ("matching shares") which is conditional on the Participants' continued employment with participating companies until the third anniversary of the award date.

On 5 January 2004, the Company was notified by the trustee of the Company's employee benefit trust on behalf of the following directors, Messrs Trahar, Davison, Lea and Nairn, that they had respectively become automatically entitled to 9,658; 1,814; 6,238; 1,601 matching shares (net amount of shares after tax and social security charges - see below) for no consideration on satisfaction of the three year employment condition on 1 January 2004.

On 22 December 2003, it was agreed with Messrs Trahar, Davison, Lea and Nairn that their entitlements to matching shares due to be released on 1 January 2004 would be reduced for no consideration by the respective number of matching shares required to pay income tax and social security charges on the release of the matching shares. The number of shares required to pay such tax and charges were: Mr A J Trahar - 4,046; Mr B E Davison - 990; Mr A W Lea - 4,334 and Mr W A Nairn - 603.

The current shareholdings of those directors are now as follows:

Mr A J Trahar	161,752
Mr B E Davison	28,204
Mr A W Lea	91,015
Mr W A Nairn	37,281

The release of matching shares to Participants on 1 January 2004 caused the number of ordinary shares held by the employee share trust in which the executive directors, along with all the group employees are treated as interested, to be reduced by 69,592 shares.
